

KIDS, BOOKS & ANTI-RACISM SERIES

CLOSING THE OPPORTUNITY GAP: PROMOTING ACCESS & EQUITY THROUGH LITERACY

LESTER LAMINACK
MARCH 10, 2021

SONJA CHERRY-PAUL
APRIL 9, 2021

KASS & CORNELIUS MINOR
JULY 12-15, 2021

ABOUT THE SERIES

This series is designed to confront social injustices that contribute to the race- and poverty-related opportunity gap by promoting access and equity for all children through literacy.

Each nationally recognized speaker will challenge your thinking and inspire you to take action to reach all learners.

You may register for part or all of the series.

AUDIENCE

- Classroom Teachers, Interventionists & Specialists
- Literacy Coaches & Teacher Leaders
- District & School Leaders

REGISTER

crrlc.lesley.edu/anti-racism

WHERE & WHEN

Online/Virtual

DATES

March 10, 2021 with Lester Laminack

April 9, 2021 with Sonja Cherry-Paul

July 12-15, 2021 with Kass & Cornelius Minor

TIME

9:00-11:30AM and 1:00-3:30PM (EST)

COST

$895 to register for the complete series or register for individual events:

- 1-day with Lester Laminack ($150)
- 1-day with Sonja Cherry-Paul ($150)
- 4-day Summer Literacy Institute with Kass & Cornelius Minor ($695)

Group discounts available!

Email CRRLC@lesley.edu to inquire.

Lesley
UNIVERSITY

CENTER FOR READING RECOVERY
& LITERACY COLLABORATIVE